

BURDEN

A Circular Mahogany Table in the Etruscan Taste by Jacob Desmalter, Circa 1810

Price: $75,000.00

Inventory Number: 2128CO

Product Summary

Height: 29"

Diameter Closed: 64"

Fully Extended: 138"

The very fine quality Cuban mahogany top on a bifurcated plum-pudding mahogany pedestal raised on four lions paw feet, the whole extending from a center table to a dining table with concealed central leg for support.

Provenance: Acquired by William Gwinn Mather circa 1908 for his estate "Gwinn" built by Charles Platt and gardens by Ellen Biddle Shipman.

Description

The table shown in situ at Gwinn

The table shown in situ at Gwinn