

BURDEN

A Very Good Pair of French Empire Mahogany Bibliotheques, Circa 1810

Price: $85,000.00

Product Summary

Height: 111"

Width: 77 1/2"

Depth: 20 1/2"

The bookcases veneered overall with highly figured fiddleback mahogany, the projecting cornice over two glazed doors with brass glazing bars on plinth base, the interior with two adjustable shelves.

Provenance: Acquired from the Crespi Estate in Texas, originally designed by famed Palm Beach architect Maurice Fatio for Count Pio Crespi in the late 1930's.

Description

A nearly identical pair of bibliothèques can be found in the library of Spencer House, London.